2013-14 Grahame Brooke Snider Endowed Photography Travel Award

This Award is in the memory of Grahame Brooke Snider who was a student in the Photography Concentration in the Department of Art at Mississippi State University from 2006-2010. Grahame lived and love photography. She absorbed all she could by attending photographic workshops and conferences. This award is in honor of Grahame’s passion for photographic knowledge and to provide others the opportunity to develop their passion for photography through travel.

The Grahame Brooke Snider Endowed Photography Travel Award will be presented in the Fall and Spring to a Photography Concentration BFA student. This award is to encourage creative visual research in the photographic field through travel to conferences, libraries, collections, museums, workshops and more.

2013 Fall Grahame Brooke Snider Endowed Photography Travel Award will be valued from $250 to $500. [Note: In the Fall 2014 this amount will be $250]

2014 Spring Grahame Brooke Snider Endowed Photography Travel Award will be valued from $500 - $1000 [Note: In the Spring 2015 this amount will be $750]
